THE GUIBORD CASE

A BIG ROW AT THE CEMETERY.

French-Canadians Refusing Admission to the Corps.

THE HEARSE FILLED WITH STONES.

THE ENDS OF JUSTICE DEFEATED.

Diagracful Conduct of the Mob.

The Order of the Privy Council Spurned.

ULTRAMONTANISM TRIUMPHANT.

From the Toronto Leader.

MONTREAL, Sept. 2.

At 12 o'clock the members of the Institut Canadien and their friends numbering some 300 went to the Protestant Cemetery to get the remains of Guibord.

Mr. Drouin presented a written order for the delivery of the body, which order was presented to the trustees of the Mount Royal Cemetery, Messrs. M. B. Gault, Wm. Turner, Andrew Robertson and George Mackay.

The only relative of Guibord present was Mrs. Rose, his widow.

At ten minutes past two o'clock, Mr. Sprague opened the door of the vault and the body was lifted by three laboring men, carried out and deposited in the hearse.

Mr. Drouin examined his head, so did also the other gentlemen standing about and about Mr. Sprague. Mr. Drouin then the coffin which was brought here on the 29th of November, 1867.

Mr. Sprague answered, "It is the coffin."

The coffin was then placed upon a bier.

The procession, comprising a dozen carriages, then formed and left the cemetery at 2 o'clock.

The procession went around the mountain at a smart trot and reached the gates of the Catholic cemetery about 3 p.m.

At the entrance, about 200 French-Canadian roughs had assembled, about the entrance to the Catholic cemetery, cursing Guibord and the Institut Canadien and vowing that they would never let his bones lie in the consecrated ground.

At the cry of "here comes the procession," a rush was made for the gates by the mob, and as the hearse drove up at 3 p.m. the gates were found barred and locked.

Mr. Drouin and his friends stood in indecision, while some hundreds of yelling and jering French Canadians stood inside, refusing entrance and pouring insults on the procession. The crowd grew very large and the Canadians were filling their pockets with stones.

The hearse was driven off the entrance to the graveyard and stood facing the gate.

Mr. Drouin despatched a bailiff to notify the guardian of the cemetery and to demand admission. He also communicated with the city authorities, demanding police aid and also sent Mr. Drouin and his friends to the volunteers out.

Some two thousand people were present at the gate at this time and French and foe mingled together.

At half-past 3 the mob made a rush for the hearse, crying "curse him, curse him" and showed it off the ground. It halted a little down the Cote des Neiges road, the driver being slightly hurt by a stone.

Quite a stampede came and many others were hurled and some trampled by the horses. The mob remained masters of the ground and courageously cried to the other crowd to come on.

At 4:15 Mr. Drouin decided, after consultation with his friends, that it would be impossible to get the admission to the cemetery, and as the bailiff had come back and reported that it would take some time to get the volunteers out, he decided to move off and the driver of the hearse moved off amid the derisive cheers of the multitude encamped behind the gate.

Mr. Seale, the driver, and his wife collected, and walked his horse at a slow pace to the road, followed by the carriages containing Mr. Drouin and his friends.

The mob, for a moment, made as if to follow and attack the retreating procession, but when they saw the hearse and the carriages containing Mr. Drouin and his friends, they hesitated and remained on the ground.

A report was in circulation that Drouin, the guardian, had been seen to issue an order to the crowd at the gate, and that outside heard the crowd crying, "If you shoot, we can too."

Through all this, "We are guarding this cemetery for the Fairbanks," "Take care Guibord away."

It was noticeable that the crowd was composed of a very few released cells of the French-Canadian population, and many of them were intoxicated through drinking at taverns in the neighborhood.

Not one Irish Catholic was noticed, though, when the crowd heard that Mr. Drouin had sent a bailiff to the cemetery, they said, "We can get plenty more from Griffiths to help us."

It was at one time proposed to send a body of men to go for the gates, but Mr. Drouin thought it best to wait for the assistance of the constituted authority. Not a quarrel of the peace was to be seen on the road, and many very uncomplimentary reflections were made on the inability to rely on city police for help in an emergency. It is not known whether another attempt will be made to bury Guibord tomorrow.

The military can be called out on a requisition of two magistrates.

Bishop Bourget, it is said, notified the Mayor this morning that he feared a disturbance at the cemetery, and the Mayor is stated to have consulted with the Mayor of Volles, who, however, did not think any trouble need be apprehended.

After the hearse had departed, the crowd remained for a few minutes and then began to disperse.

An elderly French Canadian, in his shirt sleeves, who had made himself conspicuous at the gate in resisting the entrance of the hearse, and in kicking the stones and violent conduct generally, was struck on the head with a stone, which he took to the body.

A few moments after his assailant was attacked in turn and badly beaten, but a crowd of French came to his aid.

It is said that those who were beating him, chased two of them over the hills, but without catching them.

This was the only fighting that took place, when the crowd began dispersing. It was remarked that nearly all the mob were French Canadians, who live in the "covey parts" back of the Mountain.

A rumor has been spread in the last few days that the cures in some parishes of the western portion of the Island had been preaching to their people last Sunday in a manner to excite them to violence.

A great many one-horse carts were remarked on the road and it is possible that the cause of the trouble was caused by habits.

In the morning the body of Guibord had been carried back to the Protestant cemetery, there to await further and decisive action.

Inhabitants of the country, and the distinguishing traits of its population.

Serbia (Turkish Syria) is a principality owing allegiance to the Sultan of Turkey. It is divided from the Austrian military frontier by the rivers Save and Danube. On the east it is bounded by Wallachia and Bulgaria, on the south by the Adriatic Sea, and on the southwest by Bosnia.

Its area is about 22,434 square miles. The country is exceedingly well wooded. In 1865 the population of Serbia amounted to about 1,500,000 souls, not counting the gipsies, who are very numerous. There are some forty towns and over 2,000 villages in this principality. The people belong to the Serbian-Slave race. The inhabitants of Serbia are distinguished for bodily strength and beauty, ardent, poetical impulses, peculiar manners and customs, to which time was also a reference.

After the Battle of Antietam.

BY M. DE BARRETT-LARA.

The harvest moon o'er the battle plain,
Shines down in the dim twilight of the night,
And the yellow gleams of the later corn
Glimmer by the altitudes of sand and pain,
And with the life-blood of the slain,
Is hallowed to heroic fight.

The dying by tens and threes, as night
Kissed their brows with cooling breath,
Gazed up at the cold, cold stars,
Till the light of dawn broke bright
Over the hills of death.

Two who have stood up hand in hand,
Breathed softly as in youth,
When, in the dawn of the Northern land,
They lay on soft in grass and dew,
Of their lives in a perfect, golden band,
Close to each other lie.

"Tom," says the elder, "wring slow
From his comrades' lips the crimson stain,
"Does the blood throb on your arm?"
"Says the other, with broken voice and low,
"My wound stopped bleeding an hour ago,
And now I feel the flow again."

"Don't think of my terrible loss, for you Are wounded far worse than I know that I Am a little while in the evening light,
But you, you are shattered around and through;
Do you think you are going to die?"

"No, Tom, this bleeding is almost done;
I shall go for more with Nelly and a day
And I feel all around to my own gun,
As I hear the firing and the drum,
And I feel that the 'old' think have run,
The battle was far away."

"I shall live to fight as never before!
In the battle front I shall bear my part,
And when it is over, on the floor,
I shall play with my boy, and by the door
My wife shall sit with the fire no more Over her gentle heart."

"Oh, Ben, the days of battle appear
A great way off; I'll forget the soon.
I have been thinking with Nelly dear,
It was just a year ago—yes, I know,
That I went with Nelly and the dear,
In the sunny afternoon."

"The hills were as bright as hills could be,
And Nelly, she was a dream like down,
And under the green old chestnut tree,
Paled by the light of the moon and the dew,
I took them they did not get back again,
Somewhere, so I kept lost."

"I came down safe, and she kissed me then
With a face as glad as the happy sun,
And she gave me a handful of brown nuts, Ben,
I took them they did not get back again,
Somewhere, so I kept lost."

"I have that nut in my knapsack still,
I shall go for more with Nelly and a day
They are ripe by this time on the hill,
To-morrow, perhaps, I shall get—yes, I know,
And it's slowly to-night, but to-morrow will Be fair in the afternoon."

"I am going a nutting with Nelly, and you Will get your share and a few at night,
Thursday is bright as ever I know,
And the chestnut have ripened at the summer slough."

"Still the life in your eyes of blue—Nelly—dear Nelly, come?"
Night on the battle-plain stained with gore,
But a gleam of light in the distance,
Where a million warlike and brave men,
Now a few sit mute by a cottage door.
With a child that forgets to play.
—July, 1865.

Work.

Parents should teach their children to work, and to depend in a great measure upon themselves. Those who have been taught to despise labor and know nothing about work are poor indeed. The most formal and miserable of all men and women belong to this class. They may have wealth, Still, riches do not always last.
Still, riches do not always last. The rich as well as the poor require this training.
Skill to labor is indispensable to the rich, and is indispensable to the poor.
All should labor in some way to make the world richer and better. To lift up to higher levels of enjoyment and progress;
to make a home brighter and happier by devoting to our fellow-men our best thoughts and influences; all should labor for something besides themselves, worthy of life, and its capabilities, for noble deeds and achievements.

How it Began, and How it Ended.

Does with a revolver? Shot himself through the head! That was the story of a young life recently ended, told in the morning papers
a few days ago.

What for? Why should a young man, full of health and strength, in love with a fair young girl—for he left something worth for her—with a father and mother, be heart-broken by his terrible death—why should a young man so situated take his own life?

He had betrayed his trust and defrauded his employer. He had been discovered, and the claim which before he was accused was about to become open and known. He could not face it. He preferred to face death—grim and terrible as death is. So he died by his own hand.

But what led to such a calamitous? Excessive habits. He had been living beyond his means. From this one criminal weakness came all his woes.

Young men, take warning by this fearful example, added to thousands that have gone before it. Above all things cultivate simple tastes and ways of living and disperse habits.
Make your money before you spend it.
Real wants, real necessities are few, and may be cheaply provided for. Avoid extravagance in advance of means but satisfy your wants you would avoid the evil done in more visible form.

Treating the Wrong Diseases.

Many times women call upon their family physicians, one with dyspepsia, another with palpitation, another with trouble of the breast, another with pain in her bowels, and so on, in way that all present alike to the doctor, and their easy-going and indifferent doctors, separate and distinct diseases. Assuming them to be one, she prescribes his pills and potions;
when, in reality, all these ailments are caused by some uterine disorder. While they are thus only able perhaps to palliate the disease for a time, they are ignorant of the cause, and continue their practice until heavy bills are made, while the suffering patient grows weaker in the end, but probably worse for the delay.
Treatment, and complications made, and which
a proper medicine, directed to the cause,
would have removed, thereby instituting health and continuing a course of prolonged suffering.

Dr. F. V. Parke, Buffalo, N. Y.—Your Favorite Prescription has done me good, which I am very thankful for. I am better than I have been for over two years."

From Mrs. John K. Hamilton, Oshkosh, Ill., Mar. 10, 1872.

"Dr. Parke's Favorite Prescription has done me good, which I am very thankful
for. I am better than I have been for over two years."

"Dr. Parke's Favorite Prescription is sold by Druggists.

In England it is proposed to move street carriages by clockwork. It is said that all practical difficulties have been solved. The carriages, of course, must labor under the weight of the heaviest possible amount of iron-clad—that is to say, must go on rails.
Care of two tons are spoken of, but the inventors claim a power to move a car of five tons, requiring the force of one man and two hundred pounds on the periphery of the spring wheel. Sheffield spring hangers have been of similar construction, but the beam has been made of iron, and the beam made of iron. The springs are made to be wound up at intervals by stationary steam engines.

Farm and Household.

Ant-Cure gives in the last number of the American Farm Journal a very readable and sensible chapter on the subject, from which we can draw the following extracts:

Although pickles can be bought at prices which hardly justify their use, the fact is, it is, nevertheless, strongly advised that all housekeepers who have the time to spare, should pick their own. By doing this you can avoid injurious spices, poisonous vinegars, and sometimes dross. The process of pickling is not a very exacting one, and it is always safe to taste better than any other, but, unless you have some way of knowing them to be free from injurious substances, it is better to give them a wide berth.

Rules for pickling are very simple and easily followed, and if proper care be taken after the washing is over, even the novice may always have on hand very toothsome pickles. Do not use metal in any shape when pickling, and you will avoid vinegar put in a stone jar on the stove and use vinegar as often as the all-essential feature, and unless it be good your vinegar is in vain. Pickling is a simple matter, and it is not a secret, but it is a color vinegar—not a trashy compound of vinegar and salt as a rule, or wine vinegar. Keep your pickles in stone jars, never handle them with your fingers, but use a wooden spoon, and keep them well covered with vinegar and a bladder, or close cover of some kind. It is not necessary to use a brine to make pickles green—indeed it should be considered criminal to boil them in one, and all who care for health and life will never associate less with pickles.

CUCUMBER PICKLES.—The small, long kind are best for pickles, and those that have grown in the open air are the best. Let them be freshly gathered, put off the blossom, but do not rub them. Pour over them a strong brine, and let them stand in it for twenty-four hours. In the morning drain on a sieve, and dry them in a cloth. To each quart of best color vinegar put one half ounce of whole black pepper, the same of ginger and allspice, and one ounce of mustard seed—salt, unless of agreeable. When this pickled vinegar boils up, throw in the cucumbers, and make them boil as quickly as possible for three or four minutes—no longer. Put them in a jar with the boiling vinegar, and cover closely. Make in this way your pickles will be better, crisp and green. If the color is not quite clear enough, add a little more of the mustard seed, then pour it over the cucumbers and cover perfectly tight.

ANOTHER.—One hundred small cucumbers fresh from the vines, wash and dry and put them in a large stone jar, with a pint of salt and a piece of alum. The size of a nutmeg; completely cover them with boiling water, cover closely, and let them stand twenty-four hours. Take them out, wipe dry, put them in a clean dry jar, and sprinkle over each layer of cucumbers the following spices: One tablespoonful of mustard seed, the same of whole allspice, one pint of horseradish, or, if you prefer, thin strips, a few small red peppers and sufficient strong, boiling hot vinegar to fill the jar, which must be only three fourths filled with cucumbers. When cold, cover closely and they will keep for years.

NATURAL PICKLES.—Drop them as you gather them into a jar of vinegar, and put a spoonful of salt in after the jar is filled, or soak them three days in salt and water, changing the brine out during that time; then pour off the brine, wash, dry and put them in jars, and fill up with boiling hot vinegar, cover tightly, and set in a cool place.

INDIAN MANHOES.—Take small, smooth-skinned green cucumbers not larger than an orange, cut a round piece out of one side and scoop out all the seeds, saving the pieces you cut out. Parboil the manoes in brine that will leave a little tender; dry them; fill with finely-chopped cabbage, seasoned with mustard seed, pepper, salt and ground horseradish, and a little oil on the cover, tie them round with soft cord and put them in vinegar with any spices you may like to add. Boil enough vinegar to cover them; cover well; and they will keep for years.

SALAD PICKLES.—Take two pecks of half-grown cucumbers freshly gathered, wash clean and pick in jars. Take a yellow, clear and water that will bear an egg, put in a piece of alum the size of a nutmeg, and a gallon of brine; boil the alum and pour hot over the cucumbers; let it stand till cold, then pour it off. Boil enough vinegar to cover your pickles, spice it to taste, pour it over, let it stand a full piece of time. In two days these are ready to eat.

MUSK-MELON MANHOES.—Fill, after scraping out the seeds, with a stuffing of chopped onion, scraped horse-radish, mustard seed, cloves, pepper, salt and oil. Sew the piece in with a needle and coarse thread, and pour boiling vinegar slightly salted over them in a jar. Do this two or three times, then put fresh vinegar over them and cover closely.

PICKLED PEPPERS.—Make very fine mangoes stuffed just as you would cucumbers, and boil them in vinegar and substitute celery seed.

PICKLED PEPPERS.—Ingredients for pickling onions:—To each quart of vinegar, two teaspoonfuls of whole black pepper and the same of allspice. Make—(rather the onions when quite dry and ripe, and with the fingers take off the thin outside skin. With a silver knife (steel discolors them) remove one more skin than the onion will look clean. Have ready some very dry bottles with wide mouths, or glass jars, and as fast as they are peeled put them in. Pour over cold vinegar to cover them, with pepper and allspice in the above proportions. The done with bladders, and in a fortnight they will be ready for use. This is a most simple recipe and very delicious, the onions being very nice and crisp. If you longer than six or eight months, pickled onions are liable to become soft.

PICKLED BEEF CABBAGE.—The purple red is the finest. When cut into a cabbage and salt each layer, remembering that you must salt each layer. Drain the cabbage for three days; dry it, and some sliced beefsteak and put in a jar. Pour boiling vinegar over it. Make a strong brine of whole pepper, horseradish and cloves, boiled with the vinegar will make a great improvement. Tie the bladder over the jars. In a few days open and see if the vinegar has shrunk away; if so, fill up with cold vinegar. Some recommend that the jar be boiled but allowed to cool before pouring over the cabbage. A little brine is essential to make this pickle a beautiful one, and is harmless. If kept very long, pickled cabbage goes soft, but in very nice, especially if eaten soon after it is made. Another method of making this pickle is to quarter the cabbage, remove all stalks, then slice them, and after slicing them in the above, add vinegar cold with one ounce of ginger, bruised, and a little cayenne pepper to every quart of vinegar.

GOOD FOOD AND PICKS OF IT. produces the same effect upon a person who has been starved that the French and Italian do, and, done upon the weak and debilitated, it makes them strong and vigorous, and gives them strength and suffering to strength and health.

of $5 for a score of 54 points, the highest for a prize for the highest score.

So far our men have shot admirably—

their success there was also of a very encouraging kind.

Shocking Outrage in Elzevir.

A MARRIED WOMAN OUTRAGED BY A RUFIAN.

A correspondent furnishes us with the following account of a shocking occurrence which took place in the township of Elzevir on the night of the 20th of August, a man broke into the house of Adam Dion, in the 10th concession of Elzevir, and caught Mrs.
Dion, who had just retired to bed, by the throat and choked her, and then violated her person. The ruffian swore that he would kill her if she uttered a scream. When he burst in the door she screamed, and as soon as she recovered after his departure she went out and told the nearest neighbor, about a quarter of a mile distant, and when within a few yards of the house she heard footsteps running after her, which she supposed was the ruffian, but being so near he retired. Mrs. Dion is a young woman of about eighteen years of age, and is alone in the house with her two children—one about a year old, and the other an infant in arms. She thinks she knows the villain, who it is to be hoped will meet his just deserts.

THE GUBERNAL AFFAIR.

LETTER FROM BISHOP BOURDET.

The Intention of the Church—The Queen to be Petitioned—Threatening Letter.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 9.
The Roman Catholic Bishop of Montreal
has published the following letter in Le Patriote and the Gazette this morning:

Sir—As there have been disturbances
some days since in the Catholic Church of St. Louis, I consider it a fitting opportunity of informing you of the following facts:

1. Measures had been taken that, if the body they were attempting to bury in the cathedral were not so hurriedly interred, in defiance of the laws of the Church, the place where they lay should be immediately interred, and looked upon, henceforth, as a sacred place to be held in veneration; for the Bishop of Montreal, in his capacity of superior, has ordered, to see that the mortal remains of the faithful children of the Church rest together in peace, and that the body of the deceased Catholic, that that day when, calling all men back to life, He will judge them with the full power of His might, and render to every one according to his deeds. If, therefore, such an act as to inter the above-mentioned body into the consecrated persons, I request all Catholics to remain quiet like true children of the Church and loyal subjects of His Majesty the Queen. I exhort them at the same time to be vigilant, and to be aware that the clergy of the religious houses, and of every parish family, to obtain from the Father of all Mercies that the events turn to the advantage of religion.

2. As far as circumstances allowed, I had seen the protection of the Holy See, and that in its power might be done to prevent demonstrations of violence, which lowered just with indignation, and better are always very much to be deplored.

3. I have to return thanks to Providence that the meeting on that occasion was little more than a mere popular protest in favor of the measures due to the Holy See, and in the Lord, and subject to the sacred law of His Church.

4. I deem it fitting to invite every one to petition to the Queen begging Her Majesty to join that the rights possessed by the Holy See, and to be respected in the exercise of their holy duty, and that they be respected by all those whom Providence has called to share Her Royal authority.

(Signed) G. B. Bishop of Montreal.

The Protestant cemetery is still guarded plainly.

WALSH'S TRADING ASSOCIATION.—The first of the Wimbledon match was shot on Saturday—range 200, 500 and 600 yards. None of the local marksmen were winners. The second stage of the match was to be shot to-day.

GO TO THE COMMERCIAL HOUSE. Walsh's back-street market of dry goods and clothing being sold off at wholesale and low prices.

A GOOD BUSINESS.—The steamers Guadalupe and Alondra seem to be doing a good business on their respective routes. Both had good passenger lists when leaving yesterday morning. It is surprising the amount of traffic which is being developed on the Oswego route.

ON THE MARCH.—The potato bug is on our annual march, many thousands of them being on the move, apparently on the search for fresh pastures, and hundreds of them came to grief beneath the feet of pedestrians on the sidewalks. A party that came off a "stamped out."

URGE BROTHER.—The plunking on the organ of the structure reserved for foot passengers needs to be renewed, and at once, as the boards which are at present down have served their purpose, and are now a very bad, if not dangerous, condition.

THE BANKRUPT STOCK of dry goods and clothing at Walsh's Commercial House is being sold off rapidly, call early and secure the bargain.

DOG.—Peters has passed a By-law regarding the registration of dogs, the fee imposed under this law is somewhat higher than that exacted in this town. The difficulty of enforcing this law has been found to be so great here it is questionable whether the experiment is a success or not.

HAY FEVER.—The hardness of the times amongst owners of valuable may be judged of by the fact that whereas two years ago freight on corn from Toledo to this port was 12c to 14c per bushel; last year it was 1c, and this year it is but 6c. At this rate (freight) must be accumulating money for its owners on the wrong side of the ledger, however.

BARRELS ARE being obtained at the sale of Walsh's bankrupt stock of first class dry goods and clothing, now going on at the Commercial House, next door to Mr. Smith's drug store.

SCORCHING ANGLE.—The Pictorial News of Saturday says: Yesterday, a messenger reached Pictorial with the intelligence that an upper lake vessel, the Erie Queen, of 16,000 tons capacity and load, with thirty men ashore at Gull Bay, about four miles east of Point Peter, had been wrecked on the shore.

THAT IMMEDIATE VICINITY is not dangerous, but Thursday night was a terror to the hardest seaman. The Captain says he never saw anything like it.

FIRE.—About half past twelve to-day, fire broke out in the drying kiln at Thompson's saw factory, near the lower bridge. The firemen turned out very promptly, and the fire was confined to the place in which it originated, the two steamers getting to work very rapidly and the Chemists lending valuable assistance, as did the Hook and Ladder Company. A bucket brigade fought the fire, previous to the engines getting to work, but without much success, as the fire was not within their reach and gained on them rapidly.

VITAL STATISTICS.—The registration of the births, marriages and deaths for the town for the month of August, was as follows: Births, 15; Marriages, 6; Deaths, 10. These returns are made of the mark, annual, and until the law is rigidly enforced to be the result will be obtained. The Government has made a number of threats, and inferrals, against the prosecution of delinquents. To either do this or to abandon the attempt to gather vital statistics in their duity, and the sooner their course is chosen the better, as the delinquents are a present cost a good deal of money and are worse than useless, being calculated to mislead.

ROW.—Two street rows took place on Saturday night, one near the Grand Trunk Station and the other on the west side of the river. A good deal of noise was made by the fighters, who indulged in stone-throwing promiscuously, to the alarm of the neighborhood, where the affray took place. As arrests were made, two of the police on duty had been dispatched to Shannonville, the one man left being in charge of the Station House.

SAMUEL BERING.—Mr. F. W. Whit-cher, Commissioner of Fisheries, and Mr. S. Wilcox, the great salmon breeder of Canada, have visited Prince Edward Island to examine some of its principal fresh water streams, and collect such information as they can relative to their adaptability for salmon and trout culture, preparatory to the extension to the Island of the Dominion law and regulations for the protection of the river fisheries.

MACDONALD'S HIRENTRY.—This well-known personnel of Ireland, who is a member of the House of Commons, is expected to visit the province in the near future. It gives a like representation of scenes in Ireland from one end to the other. Besides these, the singing and dancing, the specially com-posed music, and the singing of the Irish themselves with the price of admission. The Irish Minstrel have made for them-selves a reputation second to no other in the province, and are a great attraction on Wednesday and Thursday nights in Metropolitan Hall.

POLICE COURT. (Before W. A. Foster, Esq., Mayor.)

MONDAY, SEPT. 13.

LAID OVER.

Charges of infringement of the liquor law, preferred against Anger & Water-house, and W. Root were laid over.

THE TORONTO OUTRAGE.

TORONTO, Sept. 11.—John Girdle, Charles Curley, and John Leahy, charged with out-raging the person of Rachel Raftery, on the Island, on Thursday last, were brought before the Police Magistrate this morning. The evidence of the woman was taken. She stated that two years ago she came to Canada from the Island of Ireland, and was unmarried; she arrived here with a child in her arms, and she went down to the Island by the steamer, and that on the railroad track by the Island depot she met Curley, who said he was going over in a small boat, and promised to leave her where the steamer stops. When one of the men first made an immoral proposal to her, she threatened him with a knife, and he stated that he was the husband of a woman, and that he was going over in a small boat, and promised to leave her where the steamer stops. When one of the men first made an immoral proposal to her, she threatened him with a knife, and he stated that he was the husband of a woman, and that he was going over in a small boat, and promised to leave her where the steamer stops.

NOT A VERY INTERESTING and rather striking affair, says the Welland Telegraph, took place at the M. E. Church, Clark school house in Thorold yesterday. A young man, left No. 1 and courted No. 2—much to the chagrin of No. 1, who on Sabbath evening last, followed her old sweetheart No. 2 to church, and having seated herself beside them rose up during the service and struck her head on the husband of the first woman. After causing the claret to flow freely, she drew a revolver and demanded that he should marry her. He refused, and they were parted and the minister closed the service. Such "love taps" were considered more than a year ago, and the young man has since tried to settle the affair with his wife (and perhaps should be made) father in law.

Success is never achieved without merit. A man may make a poor article and sell it, and there being 60,000,000 people in the United States, the sale to such one would be enough to make a decent fortune. But an article that will increase regularly and rapidly, must have absolute merit.

DR. R. Y. PIERCE, of Buffalo, N. Y., occupies our entire eighth page to-day with his various claims to admit it, because we know the Doctor, and know of his articles. We know him to be a regular physician, and we know that he has associated with him several of the most eminent practitioners in the country. We know that parties coming in by mail send in prescriptions from all the States in the Union, and that they are fairly and honestly dealt with.

THIS GREAT has been accomplished by two agencies—good, reliable articles—articles which are sold at a low price, and a way—well-spread business management. They have succeeded because they ought to have succeeded.

IF YOU would patronize Medicine, scientifically prepared by a skilled Physician and Chemist, Dr. R. Y. PIERCE, of Buffalo, N. Y., on Medical Discovery is nutritious, tonic, alterative, and blood-cleansing, and an unequalled Cough Remedy. Pleasant, Purgative, Laxative, and more powerful than most seeds constitute an agreeable and reliable medicine for the cure of all ailments, and a most valuable remedy for the cure of all ailments, and a most valuable remedy for the cure of all ailments.

Scientific Notes.

Mr. Houghton finds that when the brain has received a shock not amounting to concussion, the ophthalmoscope shows that the optic nerve has preserved its shape and its color, and that the retina has retained its usual color, and that the optic nerve becomes swollen, uniform, and sometimes more vascular, and its color is more sharp. It also finds that in adrenergic atrophy, which extends to the adjacent parts of the retina, giving it a transparent appearance.

Some coloring matter derived from woods that do not show any fluorescence when dissolved in water, alcohol, or ether, are stated by Charles Harnett to exhibit this phenomenon when dissolved in castor oil, and when substances which he dissolved in alcohol show this property with augmented intensity when treated with castor oil. To obtain clear solutions the materials are first boiled then dissolved, evaporated to dryness, and dissolved in oil under the influence of heat. The fluorescence disappears when hot, but returns on cooling. A number of facts are given by him showing the increased intensity of the fluorescence of these solutions, and suggesting the importance of taking advantage of this property in studying the phenomena. It is suggested that fluorescence is a property of solutions rather than of simple substances.

Manfred Lewis has tried with success, in his quarries at Saxonia and at Niagara, the stone there quarried is porous, and readily absorbs water to a certain depth; it is the fact which renders it possible to introduce impregnate the stone with the solution of alkaline silicate and of alumina; there is thus formed an aluminum silicate which in its pores, which give to the surface considerable resistance. The solutions employed are made with soluble glass, and with aluminum sulphate. After the impregnation the stone may be polished. Heated to a high temperature, the exterior vitrifies and thus may be colored at pleasure. The coloration may be obtained simply by mixing the desired pigment with one of the two solutions used for the impregnation.

The leading feature of the febrile state, as it occurs in warm-blooded vertebrates, is a rise in the temperature of the body. It is constant in this condition, that it is to be regarded as the one essential characteristic of pyrexia. Dr. Lassar has examined the influence of pyrexia on the temperature of the frog. It is well known that the temperature of the blood of the animal varies with that of the surrounding medium, though always remaining a fraction of a degree above it.

The general results of a long series of such experiments was negative; the temperature of the frog always remained a fraction of a degree above that of its environment. This, of course, has been due to one of two causes—the amount of heat produced in a unit of time may have continued the same as in health; or, the absolute amount of heat produced, having been raised, the excess may have been got rid of so as to maintain the equilibrium of temperature. To decide between these two alternatives a number of calorimetric experiments were performed.

It was found that the amount of heat given off by the diseased animals was the same as that given off by healthy ones under the same conditions; hence, the conclusion was unavoidable that there was no increase in the amount of heat generated.

An Austrian railway engineer has had the idea of protecting the boilers of locomotives against incrustation by means of copper plates. The boiler of a locomotive of the bottom of the boiler of an engine were covered with a sheet of copper 1-25th of an inch in thickness, the sheet being the boiler being left unprotected. The engine was worked for two years on a part of the line of the state railway, and the water was of a very bad quality. When the tubes were taken out the incrustation was found to be 1-3rd of an inch in thickness, the boiler being left unprotected. The engine was worked for two years on a part of the line of the state railway, and the water was of a very bad quality. When the tubes were taken out the incrustation was found to be 1-3rd of an inch in thickness, the boiler being left unprotected.

The particles of incrustation were larger on the iron than on the copper. The copper of the boiler covering is said to be from $20 to $150 per boiler in Austria. Another engineer, who examined and reported on the arrangement, says that the duration of the boiler is doubled or tripled by the application of the copper plates, which afford extraordinary security against explosion.

The incrustation is much less on copper than on iron and steel, which is proved by the fact that the boiler is covered with a sheet of copper 1-25th of an inch in thickness, the sheet being the boiler being left unprotected. TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

ON AND AFTER THE First day of October, 1875, THE NEW POSTAGE LAW

FREE OF POSTAGE.

This new Postal Regulation is destined to work a complete revolution in the system of paying for Newspapers, and already in different parts of the Dominion publishers are availing themselves of the advantages which it will inevitably be introduced upon. So far as the Newspaper business is concerned, this is, no doubt, the only correct and safe system, and it will eventually be adopted universally in Canada as it has been in other countries. Compelling Publishers to pre-pay the postage on their publications, as the law now is, will necessitate the application of the same rule to Newspaper Subscribers.

With a view of bringing this system into effect as rapidly as possible, we have decided to make the following:

LIBERAL OFFER

To Subscribers of the WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER.

Any Subscriber who has not paid his subscription, will receive the following:

Paying $1.50 on or before the First day of October, 1875.

WILL RECEIVE THE PAPER FREE OF POSTAGE FOR ONE YEAR from the time his subscription commences.

It will be remembered that all accounts for Newspapers, as well as for Printing, up to the first day of January, 1875, are due and are to be paid to Mr. BOWEN. Since that period the accounts belong to the INTELLIGENCER Printing and Publishing Company, and parties when settling their old accounts have a chance of settling themselves of the foregoing liberal offer.

REMEMBER THE CONDITIONS

All Subscribers who have not paid on or before the first day of October, 1875, will receive the PAPER FREE OF POSTAGE FOR ONE YEAR from the time their subscription commences.

ONE DOLLAR AND A HALF,

ON OR BEFORE THE First day of October, 1875.

All Subscribers who do not avail themselves of this offer, and whose subscriptions remain unpaid at that date, will be charged.

TWO DOLLARS A YEAR!

As in no case will there be any deduction from the time their subscription commences.

POPULAR STORIES.

In order to induce parties to become Subscribers to the INTELLIGENCER, arrangements have been made for the publication of a SERIES OF POPULAR STORIES.

By some of the cleverest authors of the day, the first copy will be commenced in the

WEEKLY INTELLIGENCER

OF THE First of October, 1875.

And continued in each number thereafter until completed. This will be future form an Attractive and Prominent Feature

OF THE INTELLIGENCER.

The Serial Stories published in the paper for each year will be made by those of the

WORTH FOUR TIMES

The price of Subscription.

One-quarter of the matter published in that way could not be obtained in book form for

DOUBLE THAT SUM.

And yet by sending to our address the sum of $1.50 on or before the first day of October, 1875, you can have the paper containing all that reading matter, the weight of the book, and the expense for repairs is decidedly diminished.

A London journal comments on the above facts. "This combination of copper and iron in iron ships has been found very injurious on account of the galvanic action between the two metals, and we would need more satisfactory experiments with water of different qualities, and particularly with the acid water common in coal mines, before placing much value on this improvement."

No Hump.

We do not wish to inform you, reader, that Dr. Wonderful, or any other man, has discovered a remedy that cures all diseases of the body or estate, and is designed to make our ordinary affairs a little more pleasant, but Heaven itself shall be a little more pleasant.

We do wish to inform you that Dr. Rogers' Catarrh Remedy has cured thousands of cases of Catarrh in its worst form, and it is being sold by all druggists.

Penitents.—The payment of the veterans' pension in this district will take place to-morrow at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Town Hall. Lieut. Col. Macpherson is the officer who is deputed to make the payments, which amount to $20 for each man.

Industrial Farm.—The Town and County Committees on the above subject will be holding a public meeting to-morrow evening at 7 o'clock, at which it is believed will be satisfactory to the ratepayers both of Town and County, for whose approval or disapproval it will probably be submitted when the meeting takes place.

Go to the Commercial Hotel.—Wahls' bankrupt stock of staple dry goods and clothing are being sold off at unusually low prices.

Dams.—The lumbermen are busy building temporary dams on the river, by means of which they hope to have enough water to float the logs down the river, when they break the dams and let the water run.

Carriage.—The meeting to organize a chess and draught club took place according to notice at the Duke House, and was largely attended. Mr. Wallace, taking the chair, the meeting after adopting a Constitution and By-laws appointed the following gentlemen officers: Mr. D. J. Wallace, President; Mr. Nolan, Vice-President; Mr. Trevellick, Secretary; Mr. T. B. Bickel, Treasurer; Messrs. James May, and Dr. Potts, Managing Committee.

The Thompsons.—Concerning McEroy's Hibemian, which is to be exhibited here to-morrow and Thursday evening, the following notice is given: "The Thompsons, who are to exhibit a very excellent troupe, reported their entertainment in Gowan's Hall, Sparks street, last evening, before a good audience. The programme was considerably changed, and the performance, as on the previous evening, was first class. If you want to have a real good, hearty laugh, do not fail to see the Hibemian."

The Bankrupt Stock of dry goods and clothing at Wahls' Commercial Hotel.—The stock is being sold off rapidly, call early and secure some of the bargains.

Town Council.—A special meeting of Council was held last night at which a good deal of business was transacted. The report of the committee on the petition for a meeting was to be held, nor was he aware of any such meeting, and he therefore said to give only the minutes of the meeting. This was the only business in which his notice of special meetings was not given, and the Council ought to take some action in regard to the matter. For the majority of cases the reporter of this paper is not notified of special meetings, but learns casually that meetings will be held. A reform in this matter is certainly needed.

The Board of Trustees.—A meeting of the Executive and Building Committee was held last night, when arrangements were perfected for the holding of the races on Monday next, the civic holiday. It has been decided to increase the prizes offered for the first-class horse to $30, divided as follows: First, $15; second, $10; third, $5. This makes a prize list amounting in all to $545—the richest prizes offered at any place in Canada this year; therefore it is certain that the entries will be numerous in all classes. The steeplechase race, which has been engaged, will make three trips to Massena Point, as follows: At 9 a. m., 10:30 a. m., and 1 p. m. The return trips will be at 4 p. m. and 5 p. m. As the bagwell run has been arranged to take place on Monday, the races will be held on Tuesday, the hours named will be strictly adhered to. Those who wish to witness the start will find it necessary to go to the Point on the first trip. No steamers or other craft other than those authorized by the Committee will be allowed to land at the Point, and those who take passage by rowboats or flat boats must provide themselves with food before leaving the shore. The subscription list is now nearly full, and there can be no doubt of the success of the Regatta, provided the weather be fine.

Another Steamer Foundered.

13 LIVES LOST.

CHICAGO, September 13.

A despatch from Milwaukee says, the officers of the propeller "Devere" bring a report that the steam-barge "Mendota" foundered off Point Pelee, Lake Michigan, in the terrible storm of Thursday night. The passengers and crew consisted of twenty persons, thirteen of whom were drowned. The survivors reached Manitowish in a lifeboat. The Captain among them saved, but sustaining serious injury. Among those on board were the son of the owner of the boat and wife. When the life-boat was launched he sprang into it, supposing his wife would also be placed on board, but she could not be induced to leave the cabin, but sustaining serious injury. ANOTHER LARGE SHIP SUPPOSED TO BE LOST WITH ALL ON BOARD.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14.—Rushen Barr, who is supposed to be the sole survivor of the wreck of the propeller Equinox, which foundered off Point Pelee, Lake Michigan, on the morning of the 10th inst., reached this city yesterday afternoon by the steamer Huron. Capt. Ross, having been picked up by that vessel after floating thirty-one hours on the pilot house of the wrecked schooner, Barr was the last man to be picked up, and he was picked up 80 miles south-west of Manitowish Island on Saturday last. He stated to the Tribune reporter substantially the following facts: The sea was very rough during the night preceding the catastrophe, and the vessel sprang a leak while he was at the wheel at one o'clock Friday morning.

On Saturday Sept. 13.—Seven passengers of the steam bark Mendota, who were picked up by the schooner Adie, of Manitowish, arrived here yesterday. One of the crew states that at one o'clock Friday morning the waves began breaking over the Mendota, and the vessel rolled to and fro. The captain, who was on the bridge, ordered the line by which she was towing the bark Morning Star, was kept going till 5 o'clock when the other large was thrown off. Soon after the first wave was lowered and the captain and his son, first mate and some of the crew climbed into the larger boat. The smaller one was taken by some of the crew who almost immediately paddled away. The father and wife of the captain were left. The father was seventy years of age, and tried to reach the boat. When last seen the steward with his wife and went down with her. An inspection of the vessel disclosed that after the bulkheads were stove in, Barr and the mate attempted to stop the leak, but their efforts were fruitless, and it was decided to lower the boats. At this time the schooner in tow, Emma R. Meyer, was hailed and asked to come alongside, but neither the person on board nor the boat could be seen, and the vessel was unsatisfactorily at all events, the schooner did not respond. Signals were made and lights displayed, but without avail. The vessel was then lowered from the port side of the propeller, and the mate, owner, watchman, five deck hands, an engineer, and two firemen got into it, when the ship went down almost immediately. Barr was on the long distant side by side with the captain, and they finally reached a spar, but afterwards got separated. Subsequently Barr caught the pilot house, and the mate, who was on the long distant side, was picked up by the schooner Adie, and he is now feeling quite comfortable.

A story is related also by another of the crew who speaks in terms of praise of the skill of the captain, who was a man of 75 years of age, and was owned by Wm. Cronshaw, of Buffalo, who carried a large cargo of coal, and was valued at thirty thousand dollars. The cargo was consigned to the firm of J. H. & Co., of Buffalo. It is feared that the bark Evening Star is also lost. She had six men on board.

COMMUNICATIONS.

The Warden read the communications re-

The Warden also read the report of the Prison Inspector on the Gaol, of the condition which he speaks very favorably.—Referred to the Committee on Prisons and Penitentiaries.

REPORTS.

The Gravel Roads Committee have begun to follow up on the following:

That since the last meeting of Council work has been completed on the Smithville, Jackson, Hungerford and Malco roads, that Clark is progressing on the Smithville and Jerling and Frankford and Stirling roads, and that they are now made on the Belleville and Trenton and Marmora roads, and Canifton road, and that the Superintendent intends to commence almost immediately the graveling of the road of the appropriation on the Marmora road.

Mr. Farnham has called the attention of the committee to the fact that it will be impossible for him with his present complement of men to cover all the ground laid out in the

the Committee do not think it desirable to increase this force of men by adding another

The other roads yet to be finished would be Belleville and Trenton, Trenton and Frankford, Frankford and Stirling, Belleville and Frankford, and Belleville and Richmond, which Mr. Farnham will have completed with his present force and under his immediate supervision.

It having been reported to the Committee that considerable damage had been done to the Tyeod and Bridgewater roads by the late forms, they have decided to recommend that a additional expenditure of $100 to the sum already appropriated to that line of road be made.

They have also to report the culverts and improvements ordered by Council to be made at Thomaburg will be proceeded with at an early day.

The books and accounts of the Superintendent have been found satisfactory, and the progress and character of the work performed quite up to any hitherto made under the superintendence of Mr. Farnham.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Wm. H. Smith

A. F. WOOD,
Chairman.

On motion of Mr. Wood, seconded by Mr. Ashley, the report was adopted.

INDUSTRIAL FARM.

Mr. Wood stated that the committee on Industrial Farm had not been convened until yesterday, when they arrived at a conclusion as to cost, &c., but they had not been able to make definite action until the Town Council had been consulted. A sub-committee had met the Town Council, which received them courteously and appointed a committee to confer with them. They met that committee the morning, and as yet they had not had time to prepare a written report. They proposed, however, to put before the people the report which had been presented at the last session. He would, however, report verbally that they proposed to purchase fifty acres of land at $100 per acre—$5,000; for buildings, $10,000; and for clothing &c., $5,000 more—all, $20,000. Of this, it was proposed that the County expend $12,000 and the Town $5,000 as their proportions. This was the only on which there was any difference of opinion, but after some argument and discussion, the nature of which he stated, the proposition had been agreed to. He had made arrangements for the publication of the report in the town papers, the proprietors of which had granted very liberal terms. The matter was of great importance, and he urged that it be fully placed before the ratepayers in this manner, and allow them to make up their minds. He felt quite certain the people would adopt it. He moved that the proposition as made by the County and seconded by the

to show that they were in earnest, they were termed to proceed with the road project, because they did not wish to seem to influence the minds of the Councilors by making a show of beginning work. By the time of the next meeting, half of the road could be graded, and they would then ask for a County bonus. The promoters felt that road of this kind should run into the northwest, intended to go before the Government for additional assistance. He had rea-to believe that such a grant would be granted, and he wished the County to assume a favorable attitude towards the road and thereby assist it with the Government. He moved, seconded by Mr. Van Fleet,

Town and Vicinity.

CHARLOTTE REGATTA.—The Canadian yachts entered in the Charlotte regatta are the Jack and Brandy in the first class, and the Osama and Stranger, of Brighton, in the second class.

NEW GOODS on the great bankrupt sale of dry goods and clothing at Walsk's Commercial House.

LAND PAID.—It will be seen by advertisement that the Mutual Life Association of Canada, through their agent Mr. Wellington Boulton, of Desmarais, have promptly settled the claims of Mrs. Richardson, whose husband died on the 13th of August. Such promptness is worthy of commendation.

OBITUARY.—Dr. Allan MacFar, D. D. M. E., accompanied by a number of members of the Belleville and Maitland Societies, of this town, paid a fraternal visit to the Toronto Lodge last night. On Thursday evening are to be held from 25 to 30 members of the City of Quebec Lodge, which will visit Belleville Lodge No. 81.

GO TO THE COMMERCIAL HOUSE, Walsk's bankrupt stock of staple dry goods and clothing are being sold off at unheard of low prices.

THE HIBERNIAN.—This exhibition will be given for the first time in the Metropolitan Hall this evening, and a repetition of the entertainment will be given on a number of subsequent evenings, and again on the evening of the 15th. This class of exhibitions has always been popular here, and doubtless a crowd will be attracted on this occasion.

PIER IN TOWN.—During the night of the 14th inst., a fire broke out in the sheds and warehouse of the Commercial Hotel, Trenton. When first discovered, it had completely ravaged the building. It soon caught the grocery store of Wm. Ireland, which was next to the sheds. The fire brigade, with the new steamer, soon got to work, saving the opposite side of the street, and preventing a disastrous conflagration. Only a few tons of loss on the sheds, $10,000.

THE BANKRUPT STOCK OF dry goods and clothing at Walsk's Commercial House is being sold off rapidly, call early and secure some of the bargains.

PEACH FESTIVAL.—The Ladies' Aid Society in connection with St. Andrew's Church, announces a peach festival and sale of useful and fancy articles, to be held in the Metropolitan Hall, on Wednesday evening, 22nd inst. On previous occasions entertainments of a very pleasing character have been given by this Society, and we have no doubt that the one under notice will prove as attractive as the others. The ladies are very particular in the distribution of the proceeds. The Amateur Instrumental Club will perform their valuable assistance.

SPORTING.—Reports from the back country are favorable to the deer of the autumn which will shortly resort thither for a hunt. Deer are reported plentiful, and a gentleman who killed one on Friday last, informs us that they are in fine condition. As yet, but few have been shot in this country. Particulars are very plentiful in all directions, and pigeons are also to be had in large numbers, especially along the creeks and water courses. Altogether, the prospects are such as to encourage sportsmen to make an early start for their favorite hunting grounds.

BARBERS are being obtained at the sale of Walsk's bankrupt stock of first class dry goods and clothing, now going on at the Commercial House, next door to Mr. Nathan Jones.

CABLE TELEGRAMS.—The effect of competition in the management of the Cable lines, has been to greatly reduce the price of communication between the old world and the new. The Dominion Telegraph Company, which has hitherto labored under the disadvantage of not having communication with the Atlantic Cable, have, it appears, secured the control of the Direct Cable Co., and the company at once determined to reduce the rates and to meet the competition of the other lines.

MEETING AT MARMORA.—A gentleman who visited Marmora on Friday and Saturday, informs us that on Friday the experiment of smelting iron with petroleum was tried on a small scale, but unsuccessfully, the bottom of the cupola being burnt out by the too great heat. On Saturday, however, a quantity of iron was smelted and a portion of it taken to the blacksmith shop, where, after two heats, it was got to market. The iron is said to be of good quality, which is jealously guarded by its possessors, who claim that by its use iron can be raised and smelted for $5.00 per ton.

Mr. Wood wished to know if it was intended to enlarge the building, which would cost from $700 to $800.

Mr. Flint advocated the enlargement of the building, the Shire Hall being now too small for the accommodation of members. It would be better to make a temporary arrangement with Mr. Coleman and commence work in the spring.

It was added to the resolution, "and the plans and specifications be drawn up to the end."

BY-LAWS.

Mr. Rose introduced a By-law to amend

RAILWAY BONUS.
Mr. Wood stated that the expenses of the bonus By-law had not been paid. Mr. Lloyd stated that he was ready to pay the amount.

Solicitor of the Company had not given him a statement of the expenses for which the Company was legally liable, nor could he obtain it. Mr. Lloyd wished that the Clerk of the Council would draw up the amount of the legal expenses, when he would pay the amount.

Mr. Wood did not think they ought to pay for the unnecessary advertising. It was done by Companies in the County of Peterborough, and in other places.

Mr. Wilnot held to the same opinion, saying that as the only paper in the County was published in one corner of the County, and had a very small circulation, it was necessary in order to give publicity to the By-law.

Mr. Pearce said that the measure was solely in the interest of the railway, and the municipality ought to pay their share of the expenses of its submission.

Mr. White considered that the Town of Belleville was in the County of Hastings,

Mr. Flint did not consider that the Company was legally liable for the expenses, he thought they ought equitably to pay the expenses of the submission of the By-Laws. He exonerated the Reeve of Madoc from Daily Intelligence.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 18, 1875.

Town and Vicinity.

CAMP MEETING.—The Antislavery camp meeting broke up on Thursday.

TRAVELING.—As Monday has been declared a public holiday, no paper will be issued from this office on that day.

KINGSTON REGATTA.—The News says the sailing regatta for that place has been fixed for Friday, the 24th inst., particulars of which will be given hereafter.

NEW GOODS.—The great bankrupt sale of dry goods and clothing at Wall's Commercial House.

CRICKET.—The return match between the Belleville and Kingston teams has been postponed until Monday, with a good prospect for a still further postponement.

M. E. CHURCH.—The Rev. Bishop Carman, D. D., will preach (D. V.) next Sunday morning at the Methodist Episcopal Church and Rev. Mr. Vanwey will fill the pulpit on the evening of that day.

GO TO THE COMMERCIAL HOUSE.—Wall's bankrupt stock of staple dry goods and clothing are being sold off at unheard-of low prices.

TONY GOSN.—Monday night is a regular meeting night for the Town Council, but on account of that day being a public holiday, it is not likely that a quorum will be got together on that evening.

A MONSIEUR.—The Piston Gazette says: A double-headed snapping turtle was captured alive at Pleasant Bay not long since. This will match the double-headed cat belonging to Mr. Bompard of Long Point.

THE BAKERS' STOCK OF dry goods and clothing at Wall's Commercial House is being sold off at a low price, and is well worth the notice of the bargains.

FROST.—Signs of the rapid advance of winter are beginning to manifest themselves in the weather, although perhaps not at an earlier date than usual. A heavy frost occurred last night, by which delicate flowers, and probably tomatoes and corn to some extent.

AN ERROR.—The Piston Gazette says: "The price of the Weekly Intelligencer published at Belleville, has been raised to $2.00 per copy, and it is well worth the money." Whilst thankful to our contemporaries for the appreciative notice, we wish to correct the error into which he has fallen. The price of our weekly has not been raised, but remains as before, namely $1.50 in advance or $2 when not so paid—we are preparing postage and making no additional charge for the same.

REWARDS are being obtained at the sale of Wall's bankrupt stock of first class dry goods and clothing, now going on at the Commercial House, next door to Mr. Nathan Jones.

THE FIBRICES.—Parties interested will do well to remember the following dates as indicating the close season for the undersigned varieties of fish: White cod, from Nov. 10th to Dec. 1st; Salmon trout, from Nov. 10th to Dec. 1st; Lake trout, from Oct. 15th to Dec. 1st; speckled trout and brook or river trout, from Sept. 15th to Jan. 1st, and fresh water, from Oct. 15th to Dec. 1st. These regulations are imperative, and any violation of them will be punished to the letter of the law. Every one who is interested in preventing the destruction of our fisheries—who is not!—will lend him aid to Mr. Wilkins, our local inspector, to procure the enforcement of the law.

IF YOU save time and trouble with your Sewing Machine by using CLARK & CO'S Best Six-Needle Extra Quality Sewing Cotton, Noted at the Avenue on each Spool.

CHURCH TO ANIMALS.—A young man, said to have come from the vicinity of Kingston, abused a horse which he drove on the track at the Agricultural Society's grounds yesterday in a most shameful manner. For about an hour he kept him going at a fast trot, allowing no one to pass him, until the poor brute became so distressed that it led freely at the nostrils. Even in this condition the driver continued to urge on the horse, in spite of the remonstrances of humane people who tried to interfere and put a stop to such cruelty. The police ought to have arrested the driver, who was a young man apparently not in full possession of his senses, but he was allowed to go. The horse was a remarkable animal, or it could not have survived such brutal treatment.

FIRE.—At about 3 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was sounded from the town bell, but fortunately the services of the firemen were not required though they proceeded to the spot where the fire was said to be—in a grocery on the corner of Bridge and Coleman Streets, kept by Harry Stairs. The place had been on fire, flames having broken out in the store, at opposite end of the counter, but the fire was covered by Mr. Dragg, who lives over the store, and on the alarm being given by

MORNING DESPATCHES.

EUROPEAN.

Death of an English Judge.

TRIAL POSTPONED.
 London, Sept. 18.—Sir Geo. Essex Longman, late Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, is dead.

THE REGATTA.

Although entries had not been made, up to the time of writing in a regular manner, it is safe to say that there will be a considerable number of entries and close and exciting contests on Monday.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—Wm. Mahan, proprietor of the Dorchester was shot and probably fatally last night, by a man named Johnson. The affair grew out of racing at Dorchester on Wednesday.

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

Governor Charles J. Gallagher and Rev. James Woods, of the Seminary of Our Lady Angels, Niagara, were detained in Priests' to-day at the Cathedral at Brooklyn.

RECEIPTS.

London, Sept. 18.—The amount of bullion withdrawn from the Bank of England on balance to-day was £100,000.

GERMANY.

Berlin, Sept. 18.—Emperor William leaves Germany the first October, to visit the King of Italy. Bismarck will probably attend him, although it is not fully decided. The Emperor will sail from Kiel on the 10th of the month, and will be accompanied by his medical advisers, and his determination to visit Italy has just been made.

SAVING.

Savannah, Sept. 18.—568 cavalry embarked for Cuba yesterday.

WARRING.

Washington, Sept. 18.—Probabilities—For the Middle States, partly cloudy and colder weather than on Friday, with variable winds from north to northwest, rising, falling, falling, and threatening weather and rain south of Pennsylvania during Saturday night.

Some parties who have been prospecting for petroleum at Lake Annapolis, Cape Breton, have found a depth of 900 feet, a fine oil almost free from offensive odor. A company is being formed in Halifax to work it.

More escapes of Communist prisoners are reported from New Caledonia. The troops are resolved to give the officials no rest, and they certainly manage to make them pass very unpleasant hours.

Danger of disgrace stares them constantly in the face, so that it is hard to say whether the deported Communists or their guardians occupy the more unpleasant position.

SAVE YOUR HAIR.—If you wish to save your hair and keep it in a strong and healthy condition, use Burton's Compound. It will stimulate the roots of the hair, and restore the natural color upon which its growth depends. Twenty years ago a single bottle saved a lady's hair, and a single case, in which all other treatments had failed, and since that early success thousands of cases of Baldness, Dandruff, Loss of Hair and Irritation of the Scalp have yielded to the same remedy.

DR. WHEELER'S COMPOUND ELIXIR

of Phosphates and Glycerine is called CHERRY-FOOD and NUTRITIVE TONIC because Phosphates enter into the formation of very solid and fluid of the body and are essential to the development of the tissues and the generation of nerve power. They promote good digestion, aid in the assimilation of food, and supply the waste going on in the system as the result of mental and physical exertion. Being combined with Glycerine, the chief reliance in all febrile, prostrating conditions, it forms a combination of the highest intrinsic merit, and will restore to health any case of general debility than all other medicines in existence. It is incapable of injury from any other circumstances.

universality nor of the act. I repeat it —the Republicans may go hang. They are played out.

Ten human beings (says the Clare Journal) in a room barely thirteen feet long by seven feet broad; seven sleeping in one bed and a young member of the family in a hutch; misery not a degree removed from starvation abounding within, and a dunghill of putrefied matter from which arises a horrible stench without. Such is the painful story told by one of the sub-sanitary officers of the union, of a family living on roadside near Moyskoye. The house, a mud edifice, was in a tottering condition, and supported by props; the roof was only on in name, incapable of resisting the weather. So decayed and riddled with holes, the walls, unfurnished and unwashed, momentarily threatened destruction to the poor creatures who sought their protection. The household property consisted of a bed, hen coop, and a few other wretched articles not worth naming. The mother was quite naked. The cabin was tenanted at night; the common highway was the home during the day. The only visible means of support for the starving many was the outdoor relief allowed them by

At the Seventh Annual Session of the Michigan Bee-keepers' Association, G. Deolittle, of that State, read an interesting paper on the subject of the best plan for placing bees on a farm.

pay. We take from it the following vice, which, with a proper degree of allowance for the difference in latitude, may be found to be servicable to bee-keepers this locality. He said :

First place that each hive has a queen and plenty of honey, and your work is done until pollen becomes plenty, which is from the 1st to the 10th of May in latitude. Now go to each hive, and if there are not covering all the brood they are without danger of chilling, take a frame of honey from the outside, and after passing knife flat ways over it, so as to break sealing, place it in the centre of cluster.

one frame in the cluster every four days and you will find that the queen will fill besides keeping full all the cells vacated by maturing bees. By the 25th of June every available cell should be filled with brood and the hive crowded with bees.

Use some judgment, and do not go too far if the weather is cool, for if you do you spoil the whole. In ordinary June weather 500 bees will take care of 5,000 cells brood with ease.

"June 25th white clover will be in bloom, and as many of your stocks as have not swarmed and are not preparing to swarm can have their boxes put on if they are getting honey freely. There is no use putting on boxes when bees are not getting honey, as it really retards brood-raising.

We like to put on boxes when bees are anxious for some place to put honey they will fill the starters in the first before they get the last ones on. When basswood opens all boxes should be put and by this time the stocks that have swarms will have a laying queen and new swarms have their hive three-quarters full of comb. Those that have not swarmed will have some boxes ready to come and will make nearly as much honey afterwards as both new and old of those that

"It is no trick at all to get box honey in an ordinary season, if you only have bees and the hive is kept full of brood. They must put it in boxes or nowhairs. Keep an eye out and do things at the right time. A few days of neglect at right time. A few days of neglect at certain times will turn what would have been profit into loss. Remove all boxes as soon as full, and, if possible, do not have them all become full at once; for if they do, it will be hard work to get them to come in a second lot. By keeping some

"Each old stock in the spring is good for eighty pounds of box honey in a good season. If they swarm the old and new will make that; and if they do they certainly will. A man can take of 100 stocks with ease, if worked for honey; so this will give him four tons honey for the good season. Now, allow every other season to be a poor season which he gets nothing, and you have tons of honey for every year. This sell readily for twenty-five cents per pound, thus giving the apiarian $1,000 as a yearly income."—New York Independent.

Daily Intelligencer.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 22, 1875.

Town and Vicinity.

LEAVE.—The visiting yacht has all left for Kingston, where they will sail in the races on Friday. It is quite probable that some of our Belleville will follow them.

RECAP.—The Regatta Committee will hold a final meeting at Hamby's on Friday evening. Gentlemen whose subscriptions are as yet unpaid will oblige by handing the amount of their subscriptions to Morgan Kelly, Esq., Treasurer.

NEW GOWN on the gray. A bankrupt sale of dry goods and clothing at Walsh's Commercial House, at 11.

THE WEATHER.—A dejected cold rather in advance of the season continues to prevail, and over-casts and winter jackets have been donned for the nonce and found quite comfortable. As the sun crossed the equatorial line today, perhaps a favorable change may occur on long.

PEACH FESTIVAL.—It is unnecessary to need more than our readers of the peach festival and sale of quail, turkey and other articles, which was very successful, by the members of the Ladies Aid Society of St. Andrew's Church. The attractions are so numerous and the object so good, that we feel assured the Hall will be crowded.

GO TO THE COMMERCIAL HOUSE, Walsh's bankrupt stock of dry goods and clothing are being sold off at unbeatable low prices.

THE CRUISE.—Two men were accommodated with beds in the free hotel last night. There was only one prisoner—a white rooster, which a member of the force had probably bought for the purpose of taking home, and forgot on taking his departure this morning. The bird was very anxious to get out, but was politely prevented from the enjoyment of its liberty.

OMISSION.—In the hurry incident to the getting up of a report of the fair, it seems that some of the articles exhibited by the Joseph Hall Manufacturing Company escaped mention. The articles exhibited by said Company were a combined Chamber, light ringer and mowser, single ringer, light mowser, seed drill, broad cast seed sower, improved and the Oshawa self dumping horse jaw rake.

THE BANKRUPT STOCK of dry goods and clothing at Walsh's Commercial House is being sold off rapidly, cut early and secure some of the bargains.

BOSTON PATHEMAISONIC CLUB.—This, one of the most combinations of musicians now before the public, will give a grand concert in Metropolitan Hall on Wednesday evening, 29th inst. Mrs. Anna Granger Dow, the celebrated vocalist, is a great favorite here, will assist the Club, thereby constituting an entertainment of extraordinary merit, which we trust will be patronized as it deserves. Seats can be secured at Harrison's.

MADON VILLAGE FAIR.—The Fair for the sale of Cattle and Produce advertised to come off at Madon on the 16th of September was a perfect success, exceeding in the number of buyers and sellers the expectation of the most sanguine. Over one hundred and fifty-seven head of cattle were looked, and fifty-seven head and ninety sold. The fair was under the supervision of Mr. R. T. Ferguson, and everything went off in splendid style.

BABYDAYS are being obtained at the sale of Walsh's bankrupt stock of first class dry goods and clothing, now going on at the Commercial House, next door to Mr. Nathan Jones.

MIDLAND CENTRAL FAIR.—The Kingston News publishes a list of the judges appointed to officiate at the different departments of the Midland Central Fair, which is to be held at Kingston. Among the names of the appointees we observe those of Benjamin Gilbert, of Sidney, on horses, and Robert Garbutt, of Thirley, on sheep. If all the judges chosen are as competent in their respective departments as are Messrs. Gilbert and Garbutt, the prizes at the Midland Central will be awarded to the right animals and articles.

HARBOR SURVEY.—In the month of March last, the Minister of Public Works promised that our harbor should be surveyed by an engineer from the Department, in order to determine what our necessities really are. Mr. F. M. Hume, with assistants, is now here, in accordance with that promise, and will make a complete survey of the harbor, from above Zwick's Island to Foster's saw mill, or thereabouts. The work will occupy about three weeks, after which Mr. Hume and party will proceed to Trenton and survey the harbor of that city.

Mr. Van will save time and trouble with your Sewing Machine by using Clark & Co's Best No. 44 Extra Quality Sewing Cotton. Notice the American on each spool.

Police Court.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 22.

MAKING BY LAW.

George N. Leavens, owner of the market, charged Wm. Sills with stealing from the market bins for grain which he was storing in the elevator of the Farmers' Warehouse Company of which he is a shareholder. This was a first case, and a good deal of interest was manifested in the result. An adjournment was had until tomorrow.

JANUARY.

James Thompson, charged with stealing two coats and a watch and chain, the property of John Thompson, was remanded until tomorrow.

George Mills, who was up on remand,

charged with breaking into a railway car, was discharged.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer.

DEAR SIR.—Would you allow me to express through your columns the appreciation I have of the courtesy and kindness of the proprietor of the Dallas House. Although arriving here under every disadvantage, I have experienced every courtesy and kindness from the proprietor of the Dallas House. I think it only just that a courteous host should receive every encouragement, especially as I understand the present report has been long been in possession of the Hotel.

Yours, Respectfully,

Belleville, Sept. 22, 1875.

DEFAUDING THE REVENUE.

Terrible Result of Insanity.

THE TEXAS CATTLE DISEASE.

A SINGLE SCULL MATCH.

THE NEW BRUNSWICK TRAGEDY.

St. Louis, Sept. 22.—Col. John A. Joyce,

Reverend agent of this district, was arrested yesterday on a charge of conspiring to defraud the Revenue.

KING, N. H., Sept. 22.—Mrs. White, of Marbleboro, N. H., a widow lady, while temporarily insane, yesterday, cut the throat of her son, a lady riding her, and after wards cut her own throat with a scythe. Neither are expected to recover.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 22.—The Texas

cattle disease has appeared in one herd of Grant county of which five have died. Commissioners are investigating the case. In the district, a Texas steer escaped from the slaughter house and caught up with this herd, which was now infected with ticks which defiled all efforts to eradicate them.

There is not much change to note in the local market this week, a slight advance in butter being about the only alteration in the family market, but this advance is only for small lots, there being no large quantities offered, not more than sufficient, in fact, to meet the local demand.

GRAIN.—There has been a little more activity in the market with the last few days, consequent upon heavier receipts. A speculative feeling and keen competition among buyers resulted in barley being run up to 90c yesterday, but very little was taken at that figure, and this morning 80c was paid for a few loads of No. 1, but this was an outside figure, the ruling rate being 80c for No. 1 light, white, for No. 2, standard, not more than 75c was paid, buyers not getting to advance over 70c. Wheat is steady, selling at 81.05 to 81.10. Peas are slow at 65c. Eye shows an advance to 65c in first quality, at which price there is a good demand. Oats are active but lower at 35c to 40c.

SUBSCRIBERS.ON AND AFTER THE
First day of October, 1875,
THE
NEW POSTAGE LAWMakes it compulsory for Publishers to pre-pay postage on all Newspapers sent through the mail, and subscribers to the same will not receive their papers thereafter.

FREE OF POSTAGE.

This new Postal Regulation is destined to work a complete revolution in the system of paying for Newspapers, and already in different parts of the Dominion publishers announce that in future payments in advance will invariably be insisted upon. So far as the Newspaper business is concerned, this is, no doubt, the only correct and safe system, and it will eventually be adopted universally in Canada, as it has been in other countries.
Compelling Publishers to pre-pay the postage
on their publications, as the law now is, will necessitate the application of the same rule to Newspaper Subscribers.

LIBERAL OFFER.

Any Subscriber who has not paid his subscription, by paying $1.50 on or before the First day of October, 1875,

when settling their accounts have a chance of availing themselves of the foregoing liberal offer.

Town and Vicinity.

THE "UNION JACK."—A Detroit paper

says that this Belleville schooner, which sank lately near Port au Pelee, cannot be raised.

SOCIETY.—The first social in connection with the Episcopal Methodist Church for the season, will be held in the Church on Friday evening, the 24th inst. Good speeches, music by the choir, &c., may be expected.

GO TO THE COMMERCIAL HOUSE, Walsh's
bankrupt stock of staple dry goods and clothing are being sold off at unheard of low prices.

NEW DOMINION MONTHLY.—The October
number of this popular Canadian Monthly has just been received. It contains a number of well-written original pieces, and the usual variety of choice miscellaneous reading. There is a portrait of Mr. P. M. Pimm, the Sisk's Friend.

CLEANING UP.—The cells at the Public Station are being nicely whitewashed and cleaned up, and now, for the first time in many weeks, they emit no offensive smell, even after their occupancy by four of the "great unwashed," who sought refuge there
last night.

PICKED UP.—The little yacht Rob Roy,
which upset in Monday's race, went ashore
on Big Bay, and was dragged out by residents of the locality where she grounded.
The boat is said to have suffered considerable damage from the pounding she received on the shore.

NEW GOODS on the great bankrupt's
stock of dry goods and clothing at Walsh's Commercial House.

TRAIL ROOSTER.—The further adventure
of the white rooster which was imprisoned in one of the cells yesterday was, that it was placed in a bag and taken by a carrier to the home of the officer whose property it was. Thus has ended, for the time being, the public career of this notable bird.

FOR KINGSTON.—The yacht Katie Gordon,
of this place, left for Kingston yesterday.
She will sail in the second-class race tomorrow. Unless the new boats at Kingston are much faster than the Bona and Sophia, the first prize will likely find its way to Belleville.

FIRO.—The "cold spell" continues, and frosts are of nightly occurrence, yet not much damage has been done in this vicinity as yet. Our neighbors to the south, in New York State, have had more severe frosts than have yet occurred here, and a very large amount of damage has resulted to crops—corn, buckwheat, potatoes and flowers having been almost entirely destroyed.

THE BANKRUPT STOCK OF dry goods and clothing at Walsh's Commercial House is being sold off rapidly, call early and secure some of the bargains.

THE FESTIVAL.—The Peach Festival and sale of musical and fancy articles, extensive by the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Andrew's Church, and held in the Metropolitan Hall last night, proved, as it deserved to be, highly successful. There were about 250 persons present, and the amount received was $140. All the arrangements were excellent, and the Amateur Instrumental Club added much to the pleasure of those present by the very fine music which they furnished.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE IN ELIZABETH.—Our Brigadevare correspondent writes, under date of the 22nd inst.: A short time since you had to record a villainous outrage on a defenceless woman living on the Flinton road. A week ago today a similar outrage was made at another house on the same road. Mrs. Bullock was about to retire to rest when the outer door was broken open and a tall dark man entered and seized her by the throat. She uttered a scream and a little boy—the only person in the house.
The marauder, no doubt supposing it was a man, cried out, but not before he was bitten in the hand by a dog. Possibly this refuge may be the same one who attacked the other woman, and it is to be hoped he will be caught, and if he is he will certainly get all he deserves, perhaps more, too, if that be possible.

BARBARIANS are being obtained at the sale of Walsh's bankrupt stock of first class dry

the Commercial House, next door to Mr.

THE ROAST.—The Oswego Polladium

"Capt. Mosher, of the steamer Kincardine, informs us that the vessel, which is now
complete on the Bay of Quinte yesterday, when under command of Mr. G. A. Jones, passed yesterday morning. As the wind was blowing a gale from the southwest it was thought that the vessel would be sailed unless the wind moderated." The opinion of so experienced a man as Capt.
Mosher is worth a good deal, yet the wind

“Mother, hush!”

It was the first word of resistance she had ever uttered. The agony within her had been terrible to have wrung it from her. The mother was stunned with anger and astonishment. She could not recover herself enough to speak until Julie had flung away up the stairs. Then her mother covered her defeat by screaming after her: “Go to your room, you impudent hussy!”

CHAPTER III.

A FAREWELL.

MRS. ANDERSON felt that she had made a mistake. She had not meant to tell Julia that August was to leave. But now that this stormy scene had taken place, she thought she could make a good use of it. She knew that her husband operates with her in her opposition "the Dutchman," only because he is afraid of his wife. In his heart, Sam Anderson could not refuse anything to his daughter. Denied any of the happiness which most men find in loving their wives, he found consolation in the love of his daughter. Secretly, as though his paternal affection were a crime, he caressed Judy and his wife was not long in discovering that the father cared more for a lovely daughter than for a shrewish wife. He watched him jealously, and had come regard her daughter as one who had planted her in her husband's affections and her husband as robbing her of the love of her daughter. In truth, Mrs. Samuel Anderson had come to stand so practically on guard against imaginary encroachments on her rights, that she was enemies everywhere. She hated We because he was a Dutchman; she hated We because he was a Dutchman; she hated We because he had hated him on a dozen other scores he had been an American. It was often enough that Julia loved him.

to her side by her version of the story, before dinner she had told him how And had charged her with being false and cruel to Andrew many years ago, and how she had thrown it up to her, and how near she had come to dropping down in palpitation of the heart. And Sam Anderson reddened, and declared that he would protect his wife from such insinuations. The notion that he protected his wife from a pleasant fiction of the little man's, who received a generous encouragement, was hands of his wife. It was a favorite topic of her's to throw herself, in a metaphorical way, at his feet, a helpless woman, and her feebleness implore his protection. Samuel felt all the courage of knights in defending his inoffensive wife. Under cover of this fiction, so flattering to vanity of an overawed husband, she managed at one time or another to embolden him with almost all the neighbors, and refusal to join fences had resulted in a crooked arrangement known as a "dead tree," or three sides of his farm.

Julia dared not stay away from dinner which was miserable enough. She did venture so much as to look at August, sat opposite her, and who was the most happy person at the table, because he did not know what all the unhappiness about. Mr. Anderson's brow forebode storm, Mrs. Anderson's face was full an earthquake, Cynthia Ann was sitting shadow, and Julia's countenance people him. Whether she was angry with him or not, he could not be sure. Of one thing he was certain; she was suffering a great deal, and that was enough to make exceedingly unhappy.

Sitting through his hurried meal in an atmosphere surcharged with domestic electricity, he got the notion—he could hardly tell how—that all this lowering of the sky had something to do with his father. What had he done? Nothing. His constant self-examination told him that he had done no wrong. But his spirits were depressed, and his sensitive conscience

demmed him for some unknown crime had brought about all this disturbance the elements. The ham did not very good, the cabbage he could not the corn-dodger choked him, he had desire to wait for the pie. He abrid his meal, and went out to the barn to k company with his horses and his mis until it should be time to return to plough.

Julia sat and sewed in that tedious al
noon. She would have liked one more

Looking through the open hall, she saw him leave the barn and go toward the ploughing. Not that she looked. Hawk never watched chicken more closely than Mrs. Anderson watched poor Jock. But out of the corners of her eyes Jock saw him drive his horses before him from the stable. As the field in which he worked was on the other side of the house, where she sat, she could not so much catch a glimpse of him as he held his plot on the steady course. She wished

Thus the tedious afternoon wore away and just as the sun was setting down, that the shadow of the elm in the front yard stretched across the road into the pasture, the dead silence was broken. Julia had been wishing that somebody would speak. Her mother's sulky speechlessness was worse than her scolding, and Julia had even wished her to resume

Every evening of her life Julia gathered the eggs, and there was nothing unusual in Cynthia Ann's making cake, so that nothing could be more innocent than the request. Julia sat opposite the front door, her mother sat farther along. Julia could see the face of Cynthia Ann. Her mother could only hear the voice, which was distant and low.

and commonplace enough. Julia thought she detected something peculiar in Cynthia's manner. She would soon have thought of the big oak gate-posts with their round ball-like heads telegraphing her in a way, as to have suspected any such thing on the part of Cynthia Ann, who was good, pious, simple-hearted Methodist maid, strict with herself, and censorious towards others. But there stood Cynthia making some sort of gesture, while Julia took it to mean that she was to go quick. She did not dare

Court of Chancery.
WEDNESDAY, Sept. 29.
The autumn sittings of the Court of Chancery were begun here this morning before the Hon. Chancellor, Sprague.
In addition to the leading members of the local bar, the following distinguished counsel from a distance, were present: Fitzgerald, Q. C., J. McLennan, Q. C., and J. A. Boyd, Toronto; and J. D. M. Gour, Cobourg.
The docket, which is a light one, was got through with by the end of the week.

TAYLOR vs. TAYLOR. Bill for partition of 84 acres of land, part of lot 8, said of said Township.

pute was this: the plaintiff claimed that because he had made certain improvements on four acres, part of the premises, he could have these four acres set apart to him. It didn't take long for the defendant to be away in California for about 2 years, returned, in 1873, and claimed the whole land belonged to him, and the plaintiff asked the court to allow the plaintiff and the defendant to share the land. The defendant said that the plaintiff had conveyed part of 100 acres to trustees for him, the defendant, and he sought suit in Chancery against the plaintiff and Wallbridge to establish his claim and to have the land divided. The defendant asked for the trial of this suit; the defendant asked the plaintiff to be taken an inquest of 25 acres of the fifty acres situated the plaintiff's name. The Chancellor held that, although the land was not a part of the settlement, the improvements were made upon the land before the settlement; that the question was then disposed of, and gave judgment against the Plaintiff's contention, and in favor of the Defendant's, and ordered the land to be sold.

for material to pass upon." Bitting combinations of different colors, and found that three thicknesses of blue glass, with one of green, made most satisfactory medium for viewing the sun, giving a clear, almost unobscured view. At first sight, the body of the moon projected upon the disk of the sun, appearing apparently over about one-half of diameter, while about two-thirds of the moon's area was projected on the sun's disk. The light of the sun was just, little reduction in appearance being much like that observed when the luminaries shine through a cloudy sky.

of fleecy cloud obscured the view for some time, and when it passed off, the spectacle just had been tottering the edge of its ruin, and in something less than three minutes the eclipse was over.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

ON AND AFTER THE
First day of October, 1875,

NEW POSTAGE LAW

MAKES IT COMPULSORY FOR PUBLISHERS TO PRE-PAY
POSTAGE ON ALL NEWSPAPERS SENT THROUGH THE
MAIL, SO THAT SUBSCRIBERS TO THE INTELLIGENCER CAN RECEIVE THEIR PAPERS THROUGH THE

FREE OF POSTAGE

This new Postal Regulation is destined to work a beneficial change in the system of paying for Newspapers, and already in different parts of the Dominion postage is being paid in advance, and it is not far from being universally adopted. In consequence, this is, no doubt, the only correct and safe system, and it will eventually be adopted in every country.
Compelling Publishers to pre-pay the postage
on all newspapers, as the law now is, will necessarily result in the application of the same rule to Newspaper Subscribers.

With a view of bringing this system into effect as rapidly as possible, we have decided to make the following
